Welcome and Invocation Psalm 19

Leader: The heavens are telling the glory of God ;and the firmament proclaims his handiwork.

Choir 1: Day to day pours forth speech, and night to night declares knowledge.

Choir 2: There is no speech, nor are there word; their voice is not heard;

Choir 1: yet their voice goes out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world.

Choir 2: In the heavens he has set a tent for the sun, which comes out like a bridegroom from his wedding canopy,

Choir 1: and like a strong man runs its course with joy. Its rising is from the end of the heavens,

Choir 2: and its circuit to the end of them; and nothing is hid from its heat.

Leader: The law of the Lord is perfect, reviving the soul;

Choir 1: the decrees of the Lord are sure, making wise the simple;

Choir 2: the precepts of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart;

Choir 1: the commandment of the Lord is clear, enlightening the eyes;

Choir 2: the fear of the Lord is pure, enduring forever;

Choir 1: the ordinances of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.

Choir 2: More to be desired are they than gold, even much fine gold;

Choir 1: sweeter also than honey, and drippings of the honeycomb.

Scripture Reading Tony Schellenberg
Luke 4:14-21

14 Then Jesus, filled with the power of the Spirit, returned to Galilee, and a report about him spread through all the surrounding country. 15 He began to teach in their synagogues and was praised by everyone. 16 When he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, he went to the synagogue on the sabbath day, as was his custom. He stood up to read, 17 and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written: 18 "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, 19 to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor." 20 And he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. 21 Then he began to say to them, "Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing."

1 Corinthians 12:12-31a

12 For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. 13 For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and we were all made to drink of one Spirit. 14 Indeed, the body does not consist of one member but of many. 15 If the foot would say, "Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body," that would not make it any less a part of the body. 16 And if the ear would say, "Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body," that would not make it any less a part of the body. 17 If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be? 18 But as it is, God arranged the members in the body, each one of them, as he chose. 19 If all were a single member, where would the body be? 20 As it is, there are many members, yet one body. 21 The eye cannot say to the hand, "I have no need of you," nor again the head to the feet, "I have no need of you." 22 On the contrary, the members of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable, 23 and those members of the body that we think less honorable we clothe with greater honor, and our less respectable members are treated with greater respect; 24 whereas our more respectable members do not need this. But God has so arranged the body, giving the greater honor to the inferior member, 25 that there may be no dissension within the body, but the members may have the same care for one another. 26 If one member suffers, all suffer together with it; if one member is honored, all rejoice together with it. 27 Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it. 28 And God has appointed in the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers; then deeds of power, then gifts of healing, forms of assistance, forms of leadership, various kinds of tongues. 29 Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles? 30 Do all possess gifts of healing? Do all speak in tongues? Do all interpret? 31 But strive for the greater gifts.

Graffiti Board - Be sure to check it out. Inspiring additions appeared on the board last week. How about this week you write on the board the one word, or phrase from either 2 Cor 4: 1-12 that has caught your attention, or the word or phrase from our Mission Statement that is important to you? You are also welcome to continue to take a "jar", or index card home and bring it back. Write, draw, or color your thoughts, let's keep filling up the board!! All ages are welcome to participate!

Memorizing 2 Cor 4: 1-12 -- The group of "memorizers" is growing. Some are choosing the NIV option, others are working on the NRSVersion. Either are just fine. We will meet again at the front of the sanctuary right after the service to recite together. If you haven't started -- no problem! All skill levels welcome. We are working on 2 Cor 4: 1-6 for this coming week. God's Spirit speaks to us when we spend dedicated time in God's Word!

Remembering One Another

- Pray for the members of the past and current Trustee Committee who have worked tirelessly the last month to wrap up year-end finances and prepare the 2019 Budget.
- Pray for all the committees who have transitions in and out of roles in our Church after yesterday's Annual Meeting. Thank-you to the many, many volunteers who work together as one body of Christ.
- Pray for Fiona and her 4 young children. Her husband, Steve Thiessen passed away from cancer this week. He is a nephew of David & Merna Thiessen, cousin of Donita Reimer and Layton Friesen. Steve and Fiona are also close friends of David & Kendra Funk, Ruth Friesen, Marilyn Klassen, Greg and Dana Wiebe of our congregation.
